Introduction

You went out last night...

You met an attractive and intriguing man just as you were leaving the club you'd gone to with your friends, and you exchanged phone numbers.

Now you're sitting at home staring at your phone, wondering what to do. Maybe you haven't heard from him yet... or maybe you have and you're wondering how to respond to his text. Either way, the situation can feel like a minefield. But it doesn't have to be that way.

You're About To Discover:

The goal of this book is to help you learn the secrets of seductive texting. Words are powerful – more powerful than many people imagine. By the time you're done reading, you'll know:

- Why texting is a great medium for flirting
- How powerful words can be when it comes to arousing a man
- How to compose a text that will blow any guy's mind

Plus, I'll give you 15 foolproof texts that you can use to get your man thinking about you nonstop.

It's time to stop staring at the phone and start burning it up. Let's get texting!

The Power of Texting

There's no question that sending your first text to a new man can be an intimidating thing. You want to make sure to get it right. When you're just getting to know somebody, you don't want to come off as awkward or self-conscious – but neither do you want to seem too aggressive or inappropriate.

It's a fine line to walk – but you must walk it if you want to be in a modern relationship. Texting isn't optional anymore.

Regardless of where you meet, there's a good chance that some – and maybe all – of your initial communications will happen via text.

Why Is Texting Such an Effective Way to Flirt?

The first thing you need to know about texting is that it is an incredibly powerful way to flirt with a man. There's sometimes a tendency to think of men as purely visual. Now, don't get me wrong – it would be a rare man indeed who didn't get aroused at the sight of a beautiful woman. However, they're not ONLY visual. Most seduction takes place in the brain, and if you use words well, you can drive a man insane even if all he's seeing is his own cell phone.

Words are the key to a man's imagination. When you say the right things – in the right way – you can blow the top of his head off without even trying that hard. Why? Because if you know what to say, you'll get him thinking. And if he's thinking about you, and what might happen the next time you're together, he'll be so turned on he won't be able to see straight to text you back. Trust me, that's a good thing!

How Words Can Get Under His Skin

When it comes to getting under a man's skin, the mistake a lot of women make is misunderstanding how much men think about sex.

They say things like, “I think about sex too!” And the truth is that you do... but not as much as he does. Comedian Louis CK describes it as a compulsion. Women like to think about sex – men have to do it. All the time.

Once you understand that, then it’s easy to see why texting is such a powerful flirtation tool. If you share tempting little bits of information with him, his imagination is going to keep right on going with what you say. If you tell him you’re picturing his smile, he’s thinking about kissing you. If you say you want to kiss him, he’s thinking about taking your clothes off... and so on.

The key when you’re starting out is to leave most of it to his imagination. Believe me, you want his imagination to be fired up and working, because when it is, it means that you are front and center in his brain. Every time his cell phone pings, he’ll be hoping that it’s you with another intriguing, seductive text to turn him on.

Tantalizing Texts That Will Blow His Mind

Even when you know that texting can drive a man wild, it can still be tricky to know exactly what to say to turn yourself into a texting temptress. A lot of women feel shy when they're texting. They're not sure what to say or how to say it, and as a result they end up not responding – or saying something that ends up being a complete let down for the man at the other end of the text.

You don't want that. You want to feel confident and sexy every time you send a text to a man. The good news is that it's not hard to do that. All you need are a few tools, and some sure-fire texts to use when you need them.

Tips for Composing Sexy Texts

Before I share my 15 foolproof texts with you, I want to give you my best tricks for composing your own sexy texts. Trust me, you can do it. You already have everything you need. No man will give you his number, or ask for yours, if he doesn't want you. That means that you're already in the driver's seat. HE WANTS YOU. Don't forget that.

We're not going to worry about the first few "Hey, how are you?" texts that might start your conversation. You'll know when the time comes to get a little flirty. It might happen very quickly, since he's certain to be thinking about having sex with you – but some guys take a while to build up to flirting, so don't jump the gun. Be yourself. When things start to get flirtatious, here are some things to keep in mind when you're texting:

- At first, a sexy hint is much more effective than something overt. For example, if he asks what you're doing you might tell him that you're lying in bed. It seems simple, but I guarantee he will immediately picture himself in that bed beside you.
- You don't have to get explicit to be seductive. The truth is that almost anything you say can be seductive if you do it right. If you say you just got back from Yoga class, he'll be picturing you in your workout clothes and wondering how flexible you are. If you add a little something like, "I was wondering if I'd hear from you," he'll be completely consumed by thoughts of you.
- The word "maybe" can be incredibly powerful. I'm not saying you have to play hard to get, but you also don't have to agree to anything you're not comfortable doing right at the start. If he asks you for a picture and you say, "Maybe later," that can keep him happy – and thinking about later.
- If you want to get him thinking about you – well, let's face it, he's probably already thinking of you -- but if you want him to be unable to think of anything else, try mastering the art of the leading text. You don't have to come right out and say that you're turned on thinking about him. All you have to say is that you're thinking about him, and he will be wondering what you're thinking. He may even ask – and then you can make a decision about whether you want to share that information with him.

- When it comes to explicit talk, what you need to know is that he will love it – but you don't have to do it unless you want to. Some women are very comfortable getting down and dirty in text messages, while others are more reserved. You can still be sexy and seductive if you decide to keep it relatively clean.
- If you've been together a while and you want to really get him revved up, try texting him a very specific message about what you want to do when you see him later. He'll be rushing to your side... guaranteed.

What I hope you're starting to see is that texting isn't the minefield you think it is. Men are relatively easy to please in this department. They want to talk to you, then want to think about you, and they already think you're sexy. Let that thought be a real confidence booster for you.

15 Easy Texts That Will Have Him Drooling for You

I'm excited, because now it's time to share my 15 foolproof texts, the ones that will have any man drooling for you – chomping at the bit to see you. Remember, the key here is to send him something that will short-circuit his brain. The old joke is that men only have enough blood to work their brains OR their penises – not both. That's really true, and these texts will help get the blood where you want it to go.

What you'll notice about all of these is that they're not explicit, but they are designed to trigger his imagination and his libido. If you want to add something more specific, you can definitely do it – but you don't have to. If you send him one of these, it will be enough, I promise!

1. What would you want to do if you were here right now?
2. I had a dream about you last night... want to guess what it was about?
3. I just got out of the shower. I should probably get dressed. Unless you'd prefer that I didn't...

4. When I got home yesterday, I couldn't stop thinking about you. I kept thinking about all the things we could do if we were together.
5. You're so distracting! I'm supposed to be working but all I can do is smile thinking about you.
6. I want you more than any man I've ever met...
7. I want to feel your skin pressed against mine.
8. If you tell me your fantasies, I'll do my best to make them come true.
9. I can't believe how much you turn me on!
10. I want to know how you taste.
11. I love it when you take control of my body – it makes me so crazy.

12. All I want to do is climb on top of you... and stay there.

13. Whenever I imagine being with you, my body is on fire.

14. I love the way you look at me when you're really turned on... and how hard you get for me.

15. I want to know every inch of your body.

There you have it – 15 texts that are so blazing hot you'll have him panting for you in no time.

Of course you can get a lot more explicit than that if you want to, but these are all great openers that can lead the way to (ahem) bigger and better things.

Conclusion

Thank you for reading Texting Temptress. I hope you're already planning how to make good use of the information I've shared with you!

Seducing a man isn't difficult, but it can be nerve-wracking for some women. Trust me, all you need is a little confidence and finesse. Once you get accustomed to using the art of seductive texting, it will start to feel like second nature. Your man will love it – and so will you!
